

Bangi Community Uses Solar-Powered Container Wind-Resistant Type

Overview

---

Will solar power change life on Banggi Island?

KUDAT: Life for residents of three remote villages on Banggi Island, off here, is set to change for the better thanks to the solar-powered energy system recently installed at their homes.

Why should you choose a modular solar power container?

Go big with our modular design for easy additional solar power capacity. Customize your container according to various configurations, power outputs, and storage capacity according to your needs. Lower your environmental impact and achieve sustainability objectives by using clean, renewable solar energy.

Will a solar project bring light to Pulau Tanjung manawali?

They were told the project would bring light. What they got was silence and scrap metal,” she said. The projects – involving sites in Pulau Tanjung Manawali, Pulau Tigabu, Kampung Kok Simpul and Kampung Selamat – were supposed to bring hybrid solar energy to the remote island communities.

Where is Banggi Island?

Banggi Island is part of the Tun Mustapha Marine Park, the largest marine protected area and multi-use park in Malaysia. The island is located over an hour's boat ride from Kudat, about 190 km northeast of the state capital, Kota Kinabalu.
