What is Power Zone 4 arc resistant switchgear?

Power-Zone 4 arc resistant switchgear offers arc flash containment features unique to the industry in both the circuit breaker compartment and the structure. This offer is engineered with an internal arc gas management system designed to channel dangerous arc flash energy through a pressure relief mechanism in the top of the equipment.

What is arc resistant switchgear?

Arc resistant refers to the equipment rating achieved by meeting the ANSI C37.20.7 Standard for arc resistant switchgear. ArcBlok is a Schneider Electric patented technology applied inside of PZ-4 switchgear which is designed to rapidly quench and transfer an internal arcing fault before it propagates inside the circuit breaker compartment.

What is an arc flash?

An Arc Flash is a through-air short circuit event that occurs as a result of a fault condition in an electrical distribution system. Arc resistant refers to the equipment rating achieved by meeting the ANSI C37.20.7 Standard for arc resistant switchgear.

Why is arc flash protection important?

Due to the sheer size of the switchgear and the multiple busbar compartments and circuit breakers inside, an arc flash event in any location could be catastrophic to both personnel and equipment. Therefore, installing a robust arc flash protection system was a critical priority for the factory.
