Overview

Who is Singa plastics?

Singa Plastics Ltd has been designing and fabricating plastic products in Singapore since 1966. From its 33 000 m² integrated plant at 1 Fourth Chin Bee Road, the ISO 9001-certified company extrudes, moulds and assembles a wide portfolio that ranges from uPVC pipes and industrial bulk-handling containers to household storage ware.

Are container toilets a trend in Singapore?

This has led to the advent of many work and retail spaces in Singapore utilising containers with style, such as Goodman Arts Centre and nightlife space The Deck. The age of dirty, single-door washrooms at events is over. Your events can now be kept sanitary and holistically pleasant with container toilets .

Why are containers so popular in Singapore?

Moreover, they are much cheaper to spruce up than to build from an empty plot of land. This has led to the advent of many work and retail spaces in Singapore utilising containers with style, such as Goodman Arts Centre and nightlife space The Deck. The age of dirty, single-door washrooms at events is over.

Why should you hire a container specialist in Singapore?

This means that firefighters can initiate a fire for training sessions and keep it within a contained space, particularly in the event of unforeseen circumstances. This is particularly crucial in Singapore, where our shortage for land leaves us unable to afford the damage of any resource. Why choose Container Specialist?
